Information Technology Services

Information Technology Services (ITS) is the new IT service organization created within OCIO and made up of the IT support teams from throughout the Service Center Agencies (SCA): Farm Service Agency, Natural Resources Conservation Service, and Rural Development. Your familiar IT support specialist is still your first responder when you need help. He or she continues to support your system: hardware, software, telecommunications, networking, and any equipment that is connected to the network. The individuals listed below are available to help you when you are in need of IT assistance. They will attempt to resolve the problem or escalate it to the appropriate response team.
