

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MAD RIVER PILOT BUFFER PROGRAM
10/03

- Cooperating landowners: 12- Target 18, Contracting Landowners 8
- Program Contracts: 11
- Miles of riparian corridor targeted by project: 12.25
- Miles of riparian corridor field assessments completed: 10.8
- Miles of riparian corridor found in need of buffer practices:8.6
- Miles of riparian corridor contracted: 5.6
- Landowners Provided with Assessments and Maps: 15
- Acres of Commodity Cropland Converted to Riparian buffer: 50ac
- Acres in grass filter strip: 49.32 ac
- Acres in forested riparian buffer: 0.75 ac
- Acres of existing buffer enhancement: 6.35 ac
- Linear feet of streambank stabilization: 1743 lf
  - Rock vanes: 7
  - Linear feet rip rap: 218 lf
  - Linear feet bioengineering: 925 lf
- In kind volunteer planting labor: $2220.63
- Planted Materials:
  - Trees: approx 610
  - Shrubs: Approx 1115
  - Willow/red osier wattles: 56
  - Species used: White Pine, Balsam, Cottonwood, Yellow Birch, White Ash, Green Ash, Sugar Maple, American Beech, Red Oak Silky Dogwood, Red Osier Dogwood, StreamCo Willow, Serviceberry, High Bush Cranberry
- Total Project Cost: $ 81,444.27

*For further information on the program contact Abbey Willard, Manager
Winooski Conservation District, 617 Comstock Rd., Berlin, VT 05602
802-828-4493 ex.110