

Wildlife Habitat Incentives Program (WHIP)

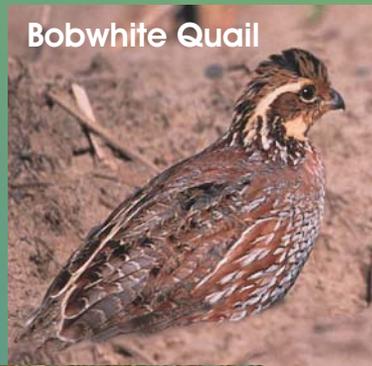

Landowners wanting to develop and improve wildlife habitat should contact the local NRCS office!

Longleaf Pine

Prescribed Burning

Bobwhite Quail

Wild Turkey

Eastern Indigo Snake

Gopher Tortoise

White-tail Deer

Fire Lanes

Native Grasses

Common practices for the WHIP program includes establishing habitat for bobwhite quail, prescribed burning, and planting hardwoods and longleaf pines. Other species benefited are wild turkey, gopher tortoise, and eastern indigo snake.