5. Steel gate posts will be 1.5 times the height of the gate, with the weight of the steel gate post being used. A good gate controller should be installed.

4. All steel gates should be reinforced with an exterior frame, using 1.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch steel angle, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the gate. The gate post shall be 1.5 times the height of the gate, reinforced with 1.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch steel angle, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the fence. The gate post shall be 1.5 times the height of the gate, reinforced with 1.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch steel angle, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the fence.

3. Fencing Material - Use a minimum of 2-Inch by 4-Inch, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the fence. The fence shall be 1.5 times the height of the gate, reinforced with 1.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch steel angle, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the fence. The gate post shall be 1.5 times the height of the gate, reinforced with 1.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch steel angle, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the fence.

2. Post holes for wood posts shall be at least 18-Inch deep on center, for the height of the fence. The fence shall be 1.5 times the height of the gate, reinforced with 1.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch steel angle, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the fence. The gate post shall be 1.5 times the height of the gate, reinforced with 1.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch by 2.5-Inch steel angle, 16-Inch on center, for the height of the fence.

1. Wood posts must be new redwood or red cedar, pressure treated, black locust.

NOTES:

1. See Note 1.

2. See Note 2.

3. See Note 3.

4. See Note 4.

5. See Note 5.