TWO NEW NRCS EMPLOYEES SWORN INTO SERVICE

NRCS State Conservationist Sylvia Gillen took the time recently to swear in two new NRCS employees. Although all new NRCS employees agree to a sworn statement during the normal hiring process, Gillen wanted to emphasize to all NRCS employees the significant responsibility each has to carry out the mission and mandates of the agency.

Gillen, speaking at the event in her office, said employees should be reminded of the national importance of the conservation mission of the agency and remember their responsibility to protect the taxpayer's investment in the improved conservation work we do each day. Overall, she said, we should execute our duties with a high level of integrity and professionalism.
