

FARMLAND PROTECTION POLICY ACT (OK-SOI-001)

Overview

This course will familiarize the participants with the knowledge necessary to understand what the Farmland Protection Policy Act (FPPA) is and how it applies to NRCS. Participants should learn how to identify Prime Farmland, where the ACT applies, and how to complete an AD-1006 form to maintain and record permanent conversion and loss of Prime Farmland soils to non agricultural uses.

Objectives

Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to understand:

1. How to locate Prime Farmland on a soil map.
2. Where the Farmland Protection Policy Act applies.
3. How to complete Form AD-1006.

Prerequisites

Generally, District Conservationists and Resource Soil Scientists.

Duration

1 day