

Rangeland Existing Activity Conservation Performance - Question 3	West	Central	East
A) Rangeland acres are predominately occupied by non-native species	annual bromes, Russian thistle, Threeawns, common sunflower, windmill grass	annual bromes, Flannel mullein, Windmill grass, annual broomweed, common sunflower, wooly verbena, silver bluestem	annual bromes, foxtail, bluegrass, ironweed, annual broomweed, eastern redcedar, tall fescue
B) Plant species represent < 1/3 of potential plant community	Blue grama and buffalograss	silver bluestem, blue grama	tall dropseed, silver bluestem, buffalograss, hairy grama, threeawns
C) Plant species represent between 1/3 and 2/3 of potential plant community	little bluestem, sideoats grama, and western wheatgrass	little bluestem, sideoats grama, blue grama, western wheatgrass, silver bluestem	little bluestem, switchgrass, sideoats grama, buffalograss, hairy grama, western wheatgrass
D) Plant species represent > 2/3 of potential plant community	big bluestem, little bluestem, sideoats grama, Switchgrass, and western wheatgrass	big bluestem, little bluestem, sideoats grama, switchgrass, and western wheatgrass	big bluestem, little bluestem, Indiangrass, eastern gamagrass, switchgrass