

CIVIL RIGHTS ADVISORY COMMITTEE
VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Pacific Islands Area State Civil Rights Advisory Committee announces an Hispanic Special Emphasis Program Manager Vacancy.

The Special Emphasis Program Managers (SEPM's) are an integral part of the overall Equal Opportunity Program in NRCS. These positions are collateral duty whose appointments are for three years.

Any permanent NRCS employee is eligible to apply. The Committee consists of representatives of minority and non-minority groups, men, women, all grade levels, and classification series from across the state.

Anyone interested in these positions should send the following information to the Pacific Islands Area Director. You may fax to (808) 541-1335. The deadline for sending in your application is February 11, 2011

1) Position you are applying for: Veteran's Special Emphasis Program Manager

2) Name: _____

3) Title: _____

4) Location: _____

5) Reason you would like to become the Representative or SEPM for this group:

Employee Signature

Supervisor Signature