

GELISOLS

Gelisols are soils that have permafrost near the soil surface and/or have evidence of cryoturbation (frost churning) and/or ice segregation.

Gelisols are common in the higher latitudes or at high elevations.

GELISOLS MAKE UP ABOUT 9% OF THE WORLD'S ICE-FREE LAND SURFACE.