

Summer Twilight Meeting & Field Day

Highlighting Research at the NH Agricultural Experiment Station

Woodman Horticultural Farm
70 Spinney Lane, Durham NH

Monday, August 22, 2011
4:00-7:00 PM

Agenda:

4:00 pm Welcome

4:15-6:00 Tour of research projects

Nursery production systems for diversified small farms
Meadow establishment techniques
Apple scab management
High tunnel tomato variety trial
Living mulch (e.g. intercropping) system with broccoli
Strawberry update and variety evaluation
Cover crops and weed suppression
And more!

6:00-7:00 Participate in one or more in-depth session:

High tunnel tomato variety evaluation, taste test, and discussion about growing

Cold-hardy peach variety evaluation, taste test, and discussion about growing

- Free and open to all. No RSVP necessary. If you require special accommodations in order to participate or have any questions, call Suzanne or Pat at UNH Cooperative Extension. 603-862-3200

NH Agricultural Experiment Station, UNH Cooperative Extension and UNH College of Life Sciences and Agriculture programs and policies are consistent with pertinent Federal and State laws and regulations, and prohibits discrimination in its programs, activities and employment on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sex, sexual orientation, or veteran's, marital or family status. New Hampshire counties cooperating.