

reduced ground cover, from overgrazing, insect damage and/or drought, results in increased runoff & reduced available soil water.

reduced plant growth & plant litter increases wind & water erosion