

United States Department of Agriculture
Natural Resources Conservation Service

August 2009

Plant Enhancement Activity – PLT08-Habitat Development for Beneficial Insects for Pest Management

ATTACHMENT A – Montana Enhancement Activity Sheet Supplement

Habitat for beneficial insects for pest management is pest specific. For example, wheat stem sawfly parasitoids live in the upper wheat stubble and their habitat is created by cutting wheat higher on the stem.

Habitat development activities will be developed based on recommendations from land grant university experts for producer's specific pests.