Initial setting: A system where interception and treatment of one of the following is needed: (1) effluent from a manure management facility, or (2) contaminated storm water runoff.