

What are Special Emphasis Programs?

Special Emphasis Programs (SEP) were established to address the unique concerns of women, minorities, and persons with disabilities in achieving equal opportunity in all employment and program delivery activities. However, these programs serve the interests of all NRCS employees by addressing issues critical to increasing the productivity of a diverse work force.

Louisiana NRCS Special Emphasis Programs and Managers include the following:

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, or marital or family status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC, 20250-9410 or call (202) 720-5964 (voice or TDD). USDA is an equal employment opportunity provider and employer.
