

Land Trusts Across Wyoming

The Jackson Hole Land Trust, Northwest Wyoming, protects and stewards the treasured landscapes across Northwest Wyoming

Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Statewide, priorities include partnering with landowners and agencies to safeguard migration corridors, conserve critical habitat, and enhance hunting access to better manage wildlife populations.

Sheridan Community Land Trust, Sheridan County, Connecting people to land and history.

The Nature Conservancy, statewide, conservation easements on large parcels with high quality habitat for a variety of plant and animal species

The Conservation Fund, Statewide, Making conservation work for America by creating solutions that make environmental and economic sense.

Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust, statewide, Conserving Wyoming's working lands for their agricultural and conservation values.

Teton Regional Land Trust, Conserving working farms and ranches, fish and wildlife habitat, and scenic open spaces in Eastern Idaho for this and future generations. They can work along the western border of Wyoming.

American Farmland Trust, to save the land that sustains us by protecting farmland, promoting sound farming practices, and keeping farmers on the land. No Farms No Food.