

Agroforestry Funding and Training for Tennessee Producers and Professionals

Appalachian Sustainable Development
Wyn Miller
November 12, 2024

What is Agroforestry?

Agroforestry is the intentional use of trees, shrubs, or other perennial crops in combination with other agricultural operations:

- Alley Cropping
- Silvopasture
- Windbreaks
- Riparian Buffers
- Forest Farming

What is Agroforestry?

Agroforestry is the intentional use of trees, shrubs, or other perennial crops in combination with other agricultural operations:

- Alley Cropping
- Silvopasture
- Windbreaks
- Riparian Buffers
- Forest Farming

What is Agroforestry?

Agroforestry is the intentional use of trees, shrubs, or other perennial crops in combination with other agricultural operations:

- Alley Cropping
- Silvopasture
- Windbreaks
- Riparian Buffers
- Forest Farming

What is Agroforestry?

Agroforestry is the intentional use of trees, shrubs, or other perennial crops in combination with other agricultural operations:

- Alley Cropping
- Silvopasture
- Windbreaks
- Riparian Buffers
- Forest Farming

What is Agroforestry?

Agroforestry is the intentional use of trees, shrubs, or other perennial crops in combination with other agricultural operations:

- Alley Cropping
- Silvopasture
- Windbreaks
- Riparian Buffers
- Forest Farming

What is Agroforestry?

Agroforestry is the intentional use of trees, shrubs, or other perennial crops in combination with other agricultural operations:

- Alley Cropping
- Silvopasture
- Windbreaks
- Riparian Buffers
- Forest Farming

Upcoming Funding Opportunity for Tennessee Producers

“Expanding Agroforestry”

- Opens in December 2024
- USDA Climate-Smart Commodities
- Coordinated by The Nature Conservancy; Regional lead is Tuskegee University; TN Technical Assistant is Wyn Miller
- Funds Silvopasture, Alley Cropping, and Windbreaks
- Contact wmiller@asdevelop.org or visit ASD or TNC websites

381
Silvopasture

311
Alley Cropping

380
Wind Breaks

Upcoming Training Opportunities for Natural Resource Professionals

- Online and In-person trainings
- 100- & 200-level
- Aimed at professionals, to increase their understanding of agroforestry practices to better advise clients

Contact wmiller@asdevelop.org for more info

Upcoming Farm Tours for Producers and Professionals

- Middle TN Silvopasture tour planned for Fall 2025
- Additional tours throughout TN, VA, KY, WV, and NC planned through 2026

Contact wmiller@asdevelop.org for more info

Questions?

Contact wmiller@asdevelop.org for more info