

NRCS Watershed Subcommittee

- Informal group of individuals (state agencies, local SWCDs, rural water associations, private entities, non-profits) that meet quarterly to discuss watershed needs and opportunities
- Opportunity to share projects, tools, resources, and funding availability for projects across the state
- Review NRCS practice standard updates when water quality criteria will be affected
- Anyone interested in attending the next meeting (early June) can contact Courtney