Rates soils used for the production of commodity corn crop production.

- Existing yield data are from different management systems and difficult to maintain.
- Collaboratively developed state-specific indices can more effectively meet local needs and objectives.
- National crop yield indices may not reflect specific local conditions.

Replace stored crop yields.
Reflect better local conditions.
Improve statewide planning.
Provide consistent indexing.

www.wi.nrcs.usda.gov