Importance: High

Hi Connie:
I hope you had a good Thanksgiving.

At the beginning of this month we exchanged email communications (Below) about a legal notice requirement to be posted in the 11/23 NR. Unfortunately the B section of our newspaper is missing from our office copy before I had a chance to look for it. I went online and still no luck finding what I'm looking for. I tried to go to the 11/23 legal notice page but not able to figure it out!!!

At any rate can you send Thomas (cc) and I the print copy. I know you send one with our bill but Thomas has requested confirmation of the article asap.

Thanks for your assistance, Connie.
Julie

Hi Connie:

It is a legal notice that we are required to post. To tell you the truth I hadn't even read it, let alone edit. I have now edited and it is better suited for publishing. Please publish as a legal notice and if possible, add to the government calendar. Thank you and sorry I didn't pay closer attention.
Julie

Good Morning Connie:

Below is a public announcement we need to have published on November 23 (black Friday). Although this indicates from USDA (NRCS) it should be billed to our district, as usual. Thank you for your help, alw
