

South Dakota
Voices for Soil Health

The information provided on this enrollment form is intended to be used for promoting soil health in public venues.

WHO | WHERE

NRCS Contact Person and field office: _____

Voice for Soil Health person's first and last name: _____

Mailing address: _____

County: _____ Email address: _____

Telephone: () _____ Mobile Phone: () _____

I communicate by any method, or, my preference is via phone mobile phone email U.S. mail

I am interested in being involved with promoting Soil Health and I am willing to... (check the appropriate items)

- host a tour at my farm/ranch/garden.
be interviewed by the media.
speak at public events (workshops, training sessions, etc) local multi-county state level
serve as a mentor for soil health
do a radio interview (recorded or live)
travel to workshops to promote soil health allow photos to be taken or provide photos of my farm/ranch for publicity other:
All of the above.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

DETAILS: WHAT, WHEN, WHY, HOW

Please share information about any innovations or highlights (What stands out about how the practices are implemented, "tools used," or approaches to problem solving that may have been adopted; or list what you want others to know):

Results/Accomplishments: Economics, Sustainability, Resource Issues or Challenges and Concerns (describe the situation). Be specific and descriptive in results and accomplishments. It is appropriate to include future plans of the project as well as changes or developments that may occur).

Are there any supporting resources, i.e., conservation partners, key participants: conservation programs used (technical and/or financial assistance: NRCS, districts, U.S. FWS, others):

PHOTOS? If available, please share any photographs and suggested captions (Photos help tell the reader what took place; be sure proper permission is obtained from the landowner and/or any people appearing in the picture. Please add the source/credit of who took the image. If available, include a pixel/resolution file size suitable for magazine printing.)